

At left—An air-plane view of the St. Louis Country Club at Clayton, Mo., where the National Amateur Golf Championship of 1921 will be played Sept. 17-25.

Above—Sixteen year old Joseph Ford, winner of THE NEW YORK HERALD golf cup, offered for players on the public links. Ford defeated Walter Purcell at Van Cortlandt Park by 3 and 2.

At left—A recent arrival in the United States is W. I. Hunter, British amateur golf champion, who expects to compete in the National Amateur at St. Louis. He has been practising at some of the courses in the metropolitan district. Wide World

Mrs. W. J. Salmon and Mrs. J. T. Munds, photographed at the United Hunts meeting at Belmont Park Terminal. N. Y. Herald Staff Photo.

The lady with the pail is Miss Borthwick, sister of the late Lord Borthwick, who is running a garage in Park Lane, London. (c) Keystone View Co.

Mrs. Marion Saportas (Miss Tiffany), Miss Louisa Ceballos, and Miss Audrey Hoffman, in the order named, photographed at the United Hunts meeting. Underwood & Underwood.

Mrs. S. Bryce Wing on her way to the paddock at Belmont Park Terminal. Underwood & Underwood.

Above—Mrs. Huntington Norton and Mrs. Nelson Doubleday found the day's sport interesting. N. Y. Herald Staff Photo.

Mrs. August Belmont, Jr., and Mrs. W. K. Dick promenading between events at the United Hunts meeting. N. Y. Herald Staff Photo.

At right—This photograph shows, from left to right, Mrs. Frank C. Henderson, Mrs. W. Phillips and Mr. H. A. Bucks on the lawn as the horses went to the post. N. Y. Herald Staff Photo.

